Department 41

In regard to the existing risk of corona infection, personal consultations are not possible at the moment.

1. Right of stay (Residency)
 - a. Applications for residence permits can be requested by e-mail or telephone and will then be sent by e-mail or post together with instructions on the required documents.
 - b. Once the application has been examined, a certificate of residence permit application will be sent to the person concerned via e-mail or post. This will certify that the residence is legal.
 - c. The necessary fingerprint collection will take place when the LRA is reopened to visitors. The electronic residence permit (eAT) can then be ordered from the Federal Printing Office (Bundesdruckerei).
 - d. eATs which are already completed or eATs which have already been ordered will be handed out at the issue desk after an appointment has been made.
 - e. Please use the contact via e-mail and telephone, especially for advice before submitting your application.

2. Accommodation management
 - a. Please contact the relevant person in charge for you via mail and telephone.
